How to Initiate/Initialize
an Agreement?

Where to Look for Articulation Agreements?

What is an Articulation Agreement?

- Agreement between a 2-year and a 4-year college.
 - Connects associate's program to bachelor's degree programs.
 - Ensures smooth transition to transfer school.
- ☐ Specifies:
- Course by course transfer equivalencies.
 - What needs to be taken after transfer to complete the bachelor's degree
 - Admissions standards and requirements
 - Availability of transfer scholarships.

- Reduces loss of credit during transfer.
- Allows students to plan ahead as they take courses at 2-year institution.
- Transfer equivalencies often apply to all students.
- Additional financial assistance.
- Easier admission and transfer process.
- Dual admission in some cases.
- Faculty to faculty relationships.

How to Initiate an Agreement?

- ❑ Some evolve from existing relationships between faculty at two schools:
 - Dean and Provost become involved as agreement is formalized.
 - Contact Dean Pullin for help with the written agreement.

- ❑ Administration to administration:
 - Chair requests help from Dean Pullin establishing agreement with specific program at a specific school.
 - Dean Pullin reaches out to Dean and/or Chair to start negotiation.
 - Faculty from both schools work out transfer equivalencies.

How to Initialize an Agreement?

- ❑ 4-year institution reaches out to us:
 - Often looking for increase enrollment and more diverse student body.
 - May start with Transfer Coordinators in their admissions office.
 - Dean Pullin contacts Chair and faculty in appropriate department.
 - Final decision to negotiate rests with the department.
- ❑ We don't usually negotiate with private, for-profit institutions
- ❑ We prioritize 4-year institutions favored by our graduates
